

Prof. Ramesh K. Goyal, Ph.D.

Professor Ramesh K. Goyal, Professor Emeritus, Institute of Human Genetics was the Vice Chancellor, at 2 Universities (DPSR University and the M.S. University of Baroda). He is Honorary Professor at Stavropol State Medical University, Russia. He has six patents, authored 48 books and book chapters, and over 450 full papers articles ('h' index 55). He has guided 51 Ph.D. and over 220 Post graduate students and recipient of over 80 Awards for research contributions. Currently, Dr. Goyal is the President of International Academy of Cardiovascular Sciences, (India Section). He has been the President of Indian Pharmacological Society, Society of Pharmacovigilance, India and Indian Society of Hypertension. He was instrumental in development of a formulation for Covid-19 duly approved by the AYUSH, Government of India.

Prof. Goyal has over 48 years of experience in Teaching and Research. He was the Post-doctoral Scholar, Visiting Scientist and Visiting Professor in University of British Columbia Vancouver and University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada. He has been listed amongst career based top 2% scientists of the world in the field of Pharmacy & Pharmacology, subfield Cardiovascular Sciences as per the list published by Plos, Stanford University. He served as the Expert member of the Indian Medicinal Plants Review group and SAG of ICMR, New Delhi, Scientific Advisory Committee and Pharmacovigilance Center of Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission, Faridabad and Phyto-pharmaceutical Group of Central Drugs Standards Control Organization (CDSCO) New Delhi, National Board of Accreditation (NBA) and Peer Member & Chairman in NAAC committees. He is the Chairman of the Scientific Advisory Group of the National Dope Testing Laboratory of Sports Authority of India. He was the Chairman of the Central Region of All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and also the Executive Member of the AICTE.